CUTICURA CURED CHIEF OF POLICE

Canadian Officer Poisoned by Weeds—Eczema Developed and Legs Became Scaly—Ankles were Very Sore and Itchy—For Weeks He Could Not Wear Shoes.

FREED FROM ITCHING BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I have been successfully cured of dry eczema. I was inspecting the removal of noxious weeds, it being part of my duty, from the edge of a river and was constantly in the dust from the weeds. At night I shook out my trousers and cleaned my limbs, but felt a prickly sensation. I paid no attention to it for two years, but I noticed a scum on my legs like fish scales. I could scrape it off, and yet I did not attend to it until it came to be too itchy and sore and began getting two running sores. My ankles were all sore and scabby and I could not wear shoes. I had to use carpet and felt slippers for weeks. I was then on particular police duty and was compelled to be on duty. I got a cake of the Cuticura Soap and some Cuticura Ointment. In less than ten days I could put on my boots and in less than three weeks, though on duty all the time, I was free from the confounded itching. I tell you frankly that Cuticura saved me from what the doctors called a bad leg. Capt. George P. Bliss, Chief of Police, Morris, Manitoba, Mar. 20, 1907, and Sept. 24, 1908."

For Baby's Bath Cuticura Soap has Become the Mothers' Favorite.

Warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointments with Cuticura Ointment, most soothing of emollients, preserve, purify and beautify the skin, scalp, hair and hands of infants and children, and, assisted by mild doses of Cuticura Pills, afford the most speedy, grateful and comforting treatment for torturing, disfiguring eczema, rash, and every form of itching, scaly, crusted humor of the skin and scalp. Guaranteed absolutely pure.

MUCH ADULTERATION OF POI REPORTED

All is not poi that thickens and this fact has been borne in upon a great many users of that Hawaiian staff of life on the other islands. In Honolulu, where there is a more or less close tab kept upon the poi-pouderers, the blue mass reaches the consumer in all its natural purity, but according to well authenticated reports, outside manufacturers have been gradually adding to and substituting in their materials until the national dish has grown to the poster paste in reality as well as in appearance and taste. The principal adulterant up until the last few weeks has been flour, with which has been compounded a yeast mixture that adds bulk to the whole.

In most places in the country, poi is sold by the bag, not by weight and this has afforded a great opportunity for the ones who want to add a little to the profits by filling the poi bags partly and letting the yeast do the rest. When the bag leaves the poi shop it has a flabbiness most noticeable. After it has been allowed to lie around for some hours it acquires a corpulence that threatens the sack seams. A shipper who loaded a few bags on the Claudine the other day rather overdid the yeasting. The bags lay for an hour in the sun at Hana, the contents straining the jute almost to the bursting point. A boat boy jabbed one of the sacks experimentally with a stick and supplied the necessary force to tear a small hole, out of which, much to the alarm of all beholders, oozed a blue snake-like stream of near-poi, which coiled itself in yard-wide loops upon the wharf, the sack shrinking back to normal with an audible sigh.

This gas-filled poi can hardly fail of being injurious, but probably less so than the substitute poi made of flour used by many Hawaiians on Maui and Hawaii. This is cheap wheat flour, stirred into a batter with cold water and yeast added. When ready for the table it is sour paste pure and simple. The increased cost of pure poi and the consequent necessity for a substitute being used by many of the Hawaiians is regarded by many of the country physicians as one of the principal reasons for the physical deterioration of the Hawaiian race. According to the report of a government physician, in one of the largest Hawaiian settlements on Maui there is not one house in which there is not one or more cases of consumption, while the vital statistics of the Territory weekly record the terrible preponderance of Hawaiians among the deaths of the week.

CUTTING STAY DOWN.

The last two or three transports bound from Manila for San Francisco have cut their stay in Honolulu exceedingly short. Just what the reason is, is not explained. For several years it has been the custom for vessels to remain here at least twenty-four hours. But lately with the use of the wireless, arrangements have been perfected whereby the troopships come in, say at noon, and depart at six. Sometimes only five or six hours are arranged for as the time-limit. The Thomas was originally wireless to arrive here at 1 p. m. yesterday and depart at six, but owing to her late arrival, the departure had necessarily to be postponed until eight this morning. It would seem that the Chamber of Commerce might inquire why the boats are now being rushed through.
